

Trekking Centre Vacancy

Enjoy working with people and animals?

A vacancy has arisen for a part time position as a Trekking centre Assistant. To integrate as a member within our small friendly Team.

Initially approx. 16 hours, over weekdays and weekends, (days to be discussed, as can currently be flexible), with the potential to increase hours, covering maternity leave from July 2022. There is scope to then remain as part of the team for the future.

Experience in a customer focused field is essential. Experience with llamas & alpacas is not required as full training will be given, however you must for-fill the following:

- Confident & calm around large animals (experience with equine or farm animals is desired but not essential)
- Have a sense of reading animal body language
- Good standards and knowledge of animal welfare
- Very customer focused, respectful and interactive with people from all backgrounds. You must enjoy making people smile and be able to engage with all ages of customer from 7yrs through to 107 years!
- Team Player with a sense of humour.
- Physically able to walk for up to approx 12 miles a day (in all weathers)!
- Capable of running (herding in), even in mud!
- Be able to work on your own initiative & independently when required.
- Reliable & trustworthy
- Have your own means of transport.
- Preferably live within a 30 min distance from Pateley Bridge

You must be prepared to adapt to a variety of tasks, including dealing with customers, assisting with refreshments & retail in our gift shop, assisting team with a Variety of animal management tasks & walking out with trekking groups.

This job, although involves animals, is only suited to someone with a strong customer focus, committed to animal welfare above their own needs. Work outside in ALL weathers, long hours and eager to learn and improve their own skills.

Minimum wage whilst in probation/ training period. Our rates are competitive for established members of staff. This is a very rewarding job with huge potential to move forward within a growing business. If interested please contact Suzanne for more information or an application pack.
